Application for Council Tax Disabled Band Reduction

You may be entitled to claim a reduction in your council tax because you have a disabled person living in the property – as long as one or more of the following conditions are met:

- There must be at least one person who is substantially and permanently disabled living in the property. This can be an adult or a child. They do not have to be registered disabled or be receiving state benefits.
- The person can be disabled by either illness, injury, congenital deformity or otherwise.

It may be necessary for supporting information to be obtained from the disabled person 's doctor or other health professional regarding the nature of the disability in order to process the application.

One of the following must be provided in the property:

- Room for and the use of a wheelchair indoors.
- A room other than a bathroom, lavatory or kitchen, predominantly used by the disabled person to meet the needs of their disability.
- An extra bathroom or kitchen needed by the disabled person (cannot be the only bathroom or kitchen in the property).
